Home

Contributed by Jack Yee
Last Updated Monday, 20 May 2013

May 2013. Reports of bluefish on the north side and schoolie bass near Ditch Plains. Be prepared for the new look of the north side after Hurricane Sandy. Much has changed so check it out to get familiar with the new geography.
Salt water fishing permit extends only to Hither Hills. Everywhere east requires permit pending legal proceedings brought by Suffolk County judge. Click here to read full story.

----------Please remember that all pictures Jack takes are available for sale by clicking here Get Pictures or on the Get Pictures tab on the left. The pictures are organized in reverse date order for easy retrieval.
To get in on the action subscribe to Jack's reports by clicking on the Register button on the left or by clicking here. To request pictures, please click on the Get Pictures menu option on the left, locate your pictures and pick your size and quantity and the pictures will be delivered to your door. If you have a family member, relative, or friend that is on active duty in the military /Disable Vet and would like them to receive my Montauk Fishing Report (It's a free gift from everyone at JackYee.com),Just send me their name,rank and email address, also a message from you. I try my utmost to keep you well inform about the bass fishing here in Montauk! I hope that you feel the same way about renewing your subscription to my fishing / photos reports for the 2007 season. Please don't let your subscription laps! Mail Check to; Jack Yee for the amount of $49.95. Be sure to add your Name and email address with the check! P.O. Box 528 Montauk, New York 11954